MANIFESTO

Needless of greed and defined acceptance
This is an embrace of natural instinct
That filters through means of animalistic understanding
And lack of.
Without stabilising others
And contributing dismissal.

This is an exchange of communication and continual ritual
Of living beyond death
And dying in the process.

Processual language and effected contributors

To inform truthful collaboration
And ultimate correspondence.

Unmitigated freedom
Of material collaboration
For toxicity or learned faith.

Parhad deunydd // Material continuum
Trwy cyfansoddiad a marwolaeth // Through composition and death
Fel cydweithiad di-farw // As deathless collaboration
A cyfranwyr byw // And living contributors
Ffwrdd o sgwrsio entropig // Beyond entropic conversation
Fel effeithiau byw // As live effects
A iaith arall // And alternative language
Nid iaith dirprwy // No surrogate language
Fel byth-bresennol // As ever-present
A byth-amrywiol // And ever-fluctuating

Fel claddu cydrannau // As buried components
Ag anadlu cydrannau // And breathing components
A cydrannau ansefydlog // And unstable components
Fel cydrannau ansefydlog // As unstable components
I gydrannau diderfyn // For boundless components
Fel cydrannau yn dianc // As escaping components
A cydrannau anghyflawn // And incomplete components
Gadael // Vacating

Rhych y tîr // Furrow the ground

Sialenu'r cyfnewid // Channelling exchange
